

NIO/EUROPE
13 May 1986Proposed Drafting
Office

The Future of US/EC Trade Relations	1st Q 87	NIO/EUR & NIO/E	EUR & OGI (?)
--	----------	--------------------	---------------

Will look at US/EC disagreements on trade (e.g. heavy European subsidization of agriculture, EC enlargement decision etc.) and examine the prospects for the sharpening or resolution of transatlantic disputes.

Turkey: The Critical Years	2nd Q 87	NIO/EUR	? State/INR ?
-----------------------------------	----------	---------	---------------

Will examine the domestic and international pressures that Turkey will be facing in the period leading to the 1988 election and their implications for the US.

The Non-Soviet Warsaw Pact States and the Third World	2nd Q 87	NIO/EUR	? NIC/AG ?
--	----------	---------	------------

STAT

Will examine the roles of the NSWP states in the Third World, the degree of to which their activities are coordinated with or run in parallel with those of the USSR, and the implications for the West.

East Germany: Self-proclaimed Exemplary Soviet Ally	3rd Q 87	NIO/EUR	EUR
--	----------	---------	-----

Will look at the East German government's increasing sense of self-satisfaction and the elements of cooperation and friction between it, the USSR, and the other non-Soviet Warsaw Pact States.

Western Europe and Extended Air Defense	3rd Q 87	NIO/EUR & NIO/GPF	DIA
--	----------	----------------------	-----

Will examine the strategic purposes, politics, and indigenous technological capabilities that will shape Western Europe's decisions on extended air defense. Will look at the implications of those decisions for Western European attitudes toward SDI.

~~SECRET~~

25X1

Title and Description of Paper (Asterisk indicates paper is under way.) (Plus sign indicates new listing.)	Targeted Completion Date (Fiscal Year)	Principal Officer	Drafting Office
2 NIE 24-86: Italy: Toward a New Domestic Political Alignment and a More Ambitious Security Policy Will look at the new alignment of forces created by the decline of the Christian Democratic and Communist parties and the strengthening of smaller parties. Will examine whether a new political constellation will further the current trend toward a more active Italian role in the Mediterranean and Middle East.	4th Q 1986	NIO/EUR	EURA
2 NIE 12.6-86: The Party Versus Poland: The Next Round Will reassess the "normalization process" in Poland, with emphasis on the party's forthcoming 1986 congress.	4th Q 1986 1st Q 87	NIO/EUR	EURA
2 Memorandum to Holders of SNIE 15-83: The Outlook for Yugoslavia Will assess the main trends since the SNIE of January 1983, with emphasis on projecting the impact of prolonged economic decline, rising ethnic strains, and leadership drift on Yugoslav stability and cohesion.	4th Q 1986	NIO/EUR	INR NIC / AG
2 NIE 22/23/21-86: Prospects for Military/Security Cooperation Between the Major West European Allies Will assay whether resource constraints and other factors will move Britain, France, and West Germany toward an oft-discussed, never-realized greater cooperation on security issues and the implications of any new consensus on Western alliance management.	1st 2nd Q 1987 2nd Q 1986	NIO/EUR	NIC / AG DIA?
IIM: NATO Modernization: The Spanish Armed Forces Will examine current military capabilities and future prospects for Spain's military forces. Will assess Spain's outlook on its NATO role and how its forces could fit into NATO's defensive plans.	1st Q 1987 4th Q 1986	NIO/GPF	—

~~SECRET~~